THE TREASURY FRAUDS.

WHATEVER conflicting opinions may exist as to the individual responsibilities of the highly paid and brilliantly ornamental is most magnanimous of Lord Ripon removed to the hospital in a chair, and it is Government servants by whose combined to let the last-named expert off with a feared he is too seriously hart to appear to-night. ignorance and inexcusable neglect the nominal fine of $1,000; but if the $62,817 ratepayers of this colony have been saddled with a loss which has modestly been estimated at 862,817, there certainly can be no doubt as to the genuine sympathy large sum would have been so glaringly which these erring aspirants to intelligent conspicuous. statesmanship, and especially the chief culprit, have received from all classes. The depressing wave of misfortune has rolled so heavily and so universally over this colony for the past four or five years that what the great poet describes as a "fellow feeling which makes us wondrous kind" has engendered a more than kindly feeling for brothers in misfortune, some of whom would have been tyrants if they could and for whose default no possible extenuation can be found. These grossly neglectful public officials, exposed by hitherto, nothing like the five millions the Special Commission, unequivocally templated.

condemned by Governor Rosinson (but with extenuating circumstances in every case, excepting one, elaborated to such an extent that the condemnation was reduced to the level of a farce), publicly censured and otherwise punished by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, have been regarded more as martyrs of the injuredinnocence persuasion than as incompetent and culpably careless trustees of public money; and that such has been the case is, if nothing else, a noteworthy exhibition of the colony's free-and-easy good nature. That these officials deserved such exceptional consideration, that they even deserved any consideration whatever, may be seriously doubted; they were placed in high and responsible positions of trust as guardians of the public purse, and they neglected that trust, with the result that a very large sum of money was sacrificed. Had they been treasurers in a private business firm, these persons would have been summaril; dismissed, and some of them probably prosecuted for criminal neglect; under any foreign Government they would have been arrested and sent to the capital of the country to be dealt with according to law. But in Hongkong one unfortunate is made into a scapegoat, to excuse the Government's acknowledged weakness, and the others, although almost equally culpable, are most carefully whitewashed. Notwithstanding the serious questions at stake, we have perused with considerable amusement the published official correspondence relating to these Treasury Frauds. That the members of the Commission performed their duties carefully and impartially is beyond doubt; that their finding was more than justified must be palpable to any intelligent person who of the United States amount to $90,000,000 annually. This amount pays the wages of has gone through the evidence. If they No patching up of the truth can do away with the only too evident fact that it was Governor Robinson's bounden duty, apart altogether from personal feelings, on receipt of the Commission's report, to at once suspend Messrs. Wodehouse, MAY, and MITCHELL-INNES from further duty in this colony pending instructions from Downing Street. His Excellency's excuses for not adopting this course with any one of these erring or incompetent servants of the Hongkong ratepayers, as set out in his despatch to the Marquess of Ripon, dated 26th April, 1893, are too childishly absurd and supinely contradictory, for serious consideration. This historical despatch, which from beginning to end bears the unmistakeable trademark of edition of that old-fashioned Punch are roughly knocked down and then$4.00 carefully set up again. Either Messrs. WODEHOUSE, MAY, and MITCHELL-INNES were severally and jointly responsible for these frauds, or they were not! If they were, they ought to have been equitably dealt with; if they were not, they had a right to honorable acquittal. All we wish to say regarding the statements these officials thought fit to make in extenuation and defence of their alleged incompetency or neglect is that, to our way of thinking, it would have been much better if they had suffered in silence; their letters to the Government, especially that of MITCHELL-INNES, only aggravated the offence and placed their inexcusable neglect in a worse light.

Why did a perusal of the official correspondence afford us such innocent merriment? We can explain in a few words. His Excellency the Governor, after adversely traversing at great length the defences of his hapless subordinates, wound up by a recommendation to the Secretary of State which might very fairly be construed into a wish that each one of them should receive a handsome testimonial. His Excellency had the honour to recommend that they should be absolved from all pecuniary responsibility, and all the punishment he ventured to suggest was that MITCHELL-INNES should be provided with suitable employment else-And Sir William Robinson actually described this awful alternative as "a severe punishment." Now, we don't for a moment suppose that anybody in the colony ever desired that extreme measures should be adopted: but Governor Robinson must not really imagine that we are all arrant fools. His Excellency loses nothing, not even official prestige, these discreditable frauds, and more does My Lord Marquess Ripon; the amount of Alves' defaications, as well as those of the versatile BARRADAS. must be borne by the unduly taxed ratepayers of Hongkong, and that is where the shoe pinches. Fooling about with other people's money costs nothing. It is cheap philanthropy on the part of Governor Robinson to have the honour to recommend that Messrs. Wodehouse, MAY, and MITCHELL-INNES should not be called upon to pay up sums for which they are clearly responsible, and had belonged personally to Governor Robinson or the Marquesa of River, we doubt if their leniency towards to say she was "une grande marieuse," and the the persons responsible for the loss of that

TEA TRADE-MARKS. Li Chun was charged with infringing the "Yuen Sun " trade-mark as applied to tea bexes. Mr. J. J. Francis, Q.C., instructed by Mr. C. Ewens, prosecuted, and Mr E. Robinson, instructed by Mr. H. L. Dennys, defended. The same case, in slightly different form, was dismissed in the August Sessions.

Mr. Robinson raised a preliminary objection to the first three counts of the indictment on the ground of insufficient description of the goods as to which the offence was alleged. As to the fourth count he objected to the form on the ground of ambiguity. Mr. Francis explained that the offence alleged was that the defendant made his tea appear to have been of Yuen Sun make, and all the items complained of were parts of the one offence. After a long discussion, the first three charges being set aside, and the others settled, the following special jury was sworn :---G. B. Dodwell. C. C Cohen, F. Henderson, G. C. Anderson, A. Denison, R. Cook and L.

Mr. Francis stated that Chu Yu Tin, of the Kwong Mau Tai hong, had worked up a very valuable trade in tea for Central and South America. The marks and make-up were well known in those countries. The defendant had made up tes with an appearance which it was claimed was intended to resemble plaintiff's tea, and would deceive customers. It was for the jury to say whether it was an attempt to imitate or not. He then detailed at very great length the points of resemblance and of difference. (Case proceeding.)

The L. and C. Express, in re-echoing the sentiments so freely expressed by the Telegraph with reference to the Po Leung Kuk Ordinance. passed in the Legislative Council, observes :-In passing the Bill giving the Po Leung Kuk a subsidy, and transferring the powers previously vested in the Registrar-General under the 1800 Ordinance, the Legislative Council of Hongkong has certainly run counter to the main body of opinion in the colony. We would certainly recognise the good bitherto done by the society; but to transfer, in the way that has been done by the Ordinance, all the safeguards hitherto held by the Registrar, General, who now becomes only a member of the governing committee of the society, and liable to be outvoted on every occasion, scarcely reems wise. The Hon. T. H. Whitehead has taken up a strong position in the matter, and has addressed the Secretary of State to disallow or amend the Ordinance. It is inadvisable that the Registrar-General should be of the governing body—he might be ex-officio chairman, with a power of veto, subject to appeal to the Governor. But this officer should be cutside the ordinary committee, have no vote, and merely watch as the representative of the Government, which bestows $20,000 a year to assist in the good work of the society in rescuing women and children. We do not wish to see the society difft into the power wielded at one time by the Tung Wah Hospital, and care must also be taken in this direction. We trust the Secretary of State will bestow the necessary attention on the Bill, for it has been drawn and passed in too indefinite and loose a manner, and confers a political status on a body which should exist purely for philanthropic considerations.
